More Regulars Than Townsend and Coughlin Men in Ohio Race for Congress.

By The Associated Press COLUMBUS, On Sept. 5-Ohio's congressional race, watched for passible indications of the relative errength of followers of Rev. Charles E Coughlin and Dr.

Charle E Coughlin and Dr. Francis E Townsend, publishly will show "regular" Democrat and Republican candidates outnumbering them about 3 to 2. The Detroit radio priest at a raity in Cleveland stadium May 10 on behalf of his National Union for Social Justice-indorard congressional candidates, predicted they would "take half of Ohio" in the November election. With all nominating pelitions in and awaiting final accruting on their validity by county election boards, a recapitutation of particular candidates showed today the following lineary.
